MAGICIAN Magician (Trunk)

Mythically rare British album from the late 1970s, only a handful of original copies have ever been found. This is because a 1977 British jazz album that looked like a 1970 prog album that was issued on a brand new label that didn't know what it was really doing was never going to sell. And it didn't. It will now though. This is a unique jazz / fusion album from the period, sounding like an incredibly hip 1973 library LP, all super funky, occasionally dark, atmospheric, and very hip indeed. Performed by a killer line up of top musicians, including the legendary Barbara Thompson. Buy this LP. You will never find an original.

MOMMA Household Name (Lucky Number)

Fresh from a series of dates with Wet Leg, Household Name perfects a balance of heavy riffs, deep emotions, inviting sonic production, and a light-hearted, wry sense of humour, creating a singular lane for Momma in today's world of alt rock.

- CD £10.99

- Indies Exclusive Red LP £23.99

MUNICIPAL WASTE Electrified Brain (Nuclear Blast)

- CD £10.99

NICK CAVE Seven Psalms (Bad Seed Ltd.)

'While in lockdown I wrote a number of psalms, or small, sacred songs—one a day for a week. The seven psalms are presented as one long meditation—on faith, rage, love, grief, mercy, sex and praise. A veiled, contemplative offering borne of an uncertain time. I hope you like it.' Nick Cave.

SUPER DJATA BAND En Super Forme Vol. 1 (Numero)

Connecting Wasulu hunter music, griot praises, pastoral Senufo dances, Fula and Mandingo repertoire with western psychedelia, blues, and Nigerian afro-beat, Zani Diabaté's Super Djata Band was among Mali's top orchestras. Tracked live inside Radio Mali's cozy environs in January 1982, En Super Forme was briefly available via Côte d'Ivoire's Musique Mondiale imprint. The album centers around Diabaté and his electric guitar's pyrotechnics, a relentless shredder that stands shoulder to shoulder with Mali's fingerstyle gods Ali Farka Touré and Djelimady Tounkara.

- Mango LP £26.99

UB40 FEATURING ALI CAMPBELL & ASTRO Unprecedented

"Astro's death came as such a shock, and I'm still reeling from it," comments Ali. "This album is now more poignant and special than either of us could have imagined when we were recording it. Astro heartbreakingly passed just two weeks after we'd finished the final mixes, so this is a way of keeping his memory alive."

VOLTA JAZZ Air Volta (Numero)

From the landlocked tropical savanna of Upper Volta, an ever-evolving cast of musicians brought the world's rhythms to the streets of their native Bobo-Dioulasso. Combining Congolese rumba, American R&B, French yé-yé, Cuban son, and regional Senufo and Mandingo traditions, Orchestre Volta Jazz was at the epicenter of the West African musical explosion of the '60s and '70s. Air Volta compiles nine original songs originally issued on the Disques France-Afrique and Sonafric labels, a peerless primer of a group that turned the brutality of colonialism into something beautiful and enduring.

- Pink LP + CD £22.99

WREN HINDS A Child's New Chant For The New Millenium [Bella Union Private Press]

Wren Hinds is a singer / songwriter from South East Africa. In a relatively short career, all the while flying under the radar with a rather low profile, Wren Hinds has proven to be a prolific songwriter, producer and composer, and an artist that is definitely worth keeping an eye on.

- Ltd. 140g Red LP £19.99

YARD ACT Dark Days

- Ltd. Silver 12" £15.99

VARIOUS ARTISTS BOB STANLEY & PETE WIGGS PRESENT Fell From The Sun ~ Downtempo And After Hours 1990-92

Fell From The Sun gathers the best of the 98bpm records that soundtracked the summer of 1990. It has been compiled by Bob Stanley, whose own group Saint Etienne makes an appearance alongside acknowledged classics (Primal Scream's 'Higher Than The Sun') and forgotten beauties (Soul Family Sensation's 'I Don't Even Know If I Should Call You Baby')

- CD £11.99 / 2LP due 8/7/22 £26.99
