CVC (or Church Village Collective in full) hail from the Welsh valleys just north of Cardiff.

Comprised of singer Francesco Orsi, bassist Ben Thorne, drummer Tom Fry, keyboardist Daniel 'Naniel' Jones and singing guitarists David Basse and Elliott Bradfield. It's worth noting that the latter two, despite never having met them, are related to Welsh royalty Dame Shirley Basse and Manic Street Preachers' James Dean Bradfield. The debut album finally appears and bring with it a touch of Laurel Canyon to the valleys.

Indies. Exclusive Gold LP £20.99 / CD £9.99 (due 27/1/23)

ESBJÖRN SVENSSON HOME.S. (Act Music)

Esbjörn Svensson's only solo album and the sheer existence of such a recording and its completely unexpected discovery over a decade after its creation are nothing less than a sensation:

JAMES YORKSTON, NINA PERSSON AND THE SECOND HAND ORCHESTRA

The Great White Sea Eagle (on Domino)

Whilst there is a lightness in sound to The Great White Sea Eagle, there is a dark humour throughout and the album conveys a rich message about life and grief, family and nature.

CD £10.99 / Ltd. DINKED Oxblood LP + Flexi + MP3 £24.99

MARGO PRICE Strays

Margo Price and her long time-band of Pricetags channelled their telepathic abilities into songs that span rock n roll, psychedelic country, rhythm & blues, and glistening, iridescent pop.

CD £12.99 / Ltd. Pink LP £26.99

MOLLY Picturesque (Sonic Cathedral)

a gloriously over-the-top blend of Slowdive and Sigur Rós, mixed with the single-mindedness of Daniel Johnston and the noisiness of Nirvana,

Ltd. DINKED Blue 2LP w/ Exc Artwork + Print + MP3 £27.99

ROZI PLAIN Prize (Memphis Industries)

Rozi's unique, heart-felt approach continues to prevail and, with the help of collaborators including Jamie Whitby Coles, Gerard Black, Amaury Ranger, Alabaster De Plume, Cole Pulice, Danalogue (of Comet is Coming) and Kate Stables (of This is the Kit)
