JÓHANN JÓHANNSSON The Miner's Hymns (Deutsche Grammophon)

The album is a collaboration between Morrison and Jóhann Jóhannsson who, with images and music, created a wordless documentary to depict the ill-fated mining community in North East England. The film is a timely reminder of choices that were made a generation ago regarding the role of labour in a corporate-based economy, the repercussions of which are still being felt today.

- 2LP Reissue includes the new bonus track Centennial as well as new additional liner notes and photos by filmmaker Bill Morrison £ 26.99
