NEIL YOUNG & CRAZY HORSE Toast

His near-mythical 2001 studio album, Toast. For the past two decades, Toast has been whispered about in collectors' circles in hushed tones, as Young has dropped pieces of information about it here and there, especially as it contains three never-before-released songs.

- CD £10.99

- 140g 2LP (Side 4 etched) £36.99

NOSO Stay Proud of Me (Partisan Records)

Stay Proud of Me is the debut album from LA-based Korean-American artist NoSo (real name, Abby Hwong). Their stage name is shorthand for North/South: a nod to their Korean heritage, and the inane origin question ("Which Korea are you from?") that so many Korean Americans inevitably face at some point in their lives.

- CD £10.99

- Blue LP £18.99

ONOM AGEMO & AHMED AG KAEDY Tartit (Agogo Records)

This is the second collaboration between the Berlin based groove-outfit Onom Agemo and the Malian guitarist, singer and songwriter Ahmed Ag Kaedy. The title "Tartit" roughly translates to unity, as it unifies not only Funk Psychedelica with Desert Blues, but also unites musicians whose backgrounds are as different as can be, but whose musical tastes are surprisingly in tune.

- LP £22.99

PARTY DOZEN The Real Work

Exactly what Party Dozen are is completely up to the listener. Doom. Jazz. Hardcore. Psychedelic. No-wave. Industrial. Feat. guest vocals from Nick Cave on a track!

- Retail Excl. Gold LP £24.99

SUN RA Ra To The Rescue (Modern Harmonic)

One of the rarer albums in the Sun Ra canon entered our orbit in 1983, mystifying listeners and confounding Ra fanatics with the minimal info on the Saturn pressing. Recorded at several locations over several years (inc. legendary avant-garde arts enclave, the Squat Theater in NYC), the tracks here include everything from Ra's sci-f synthesizer insanity, Marshall Allen's skronking sax, an excellent Arkestra vocal track 'They Plan To Leave,' and so much more

- CD £12.99 / Indie Exclusive Translucent Green LP (delayed / due soon!) £24.99

TALKING THERAPY ENSEMBLE & EMMA-JEAN THACKRAY Talking Therapy

The latest project from composer, bandleader, multi-instrumentalist and producer, Emma-Jean Thackray, following 2021's acclaimed debut album Yellow. Talking Therapy Ensemble are something between free-jazz madness and groove, somehow between composition and improvisation, and exist somewhere between the public and the private

- Ltd. 4-track 12" £15.99

TUMI MOGOROSI Group Theory: Black Music

A stunning new statement from South African drummer and composer Tumi Mogorosi who has been in the vanguard of the South African creative music scene's burgeoning international dimension, taking the drummer's chair in both Shabaka Hutchings' Shabaka and The Ancestors formation and with avant-garde noiseniks The Wretched, who featured on Brownswood's acclaimed South African showcase, Indaba Is.

VARIOUS ARTISTS BOB STANLEY & PETE WIGGS PRESENT Fell From The Sun ~ Downtempo And After Hours 1990-92

Fell From The Sun gathers the best of the 98bpm records that soundtracked the summer of 1990. It has been compiled by Bob Stanley, whose own group Saint Etienne makes an appearance alongside acknowledged classics (Primal Scream's 'Higher Than The Sun') and forgotten beauties (Soul Family Sensation's 'I Don't Even Know If I Should Call You Baby')

- 2LP due £26.99 / CD out now £11.99

VARIOUS ARTISTS Spirit Of France (Deluxe Edition)

Spiritmuse Records presents Spirit of France: Obscure, rare spiritual jazz, deep folk and psychedelia sounds from the French '70s - '80s underground. Spirit of France is an anthology celebrating the French artists whose total desire not to belong to a particular trend expanded their horizon by pushing the boundaries of creative music.

- CD £12.99
