JARCREW Breakdance Euphoria Kids

Jarcrew were a five-piece dance-punk band from Ammanford, Wales. Playing a bizarre mixture of electronica / house and prog-rock / punk / funk that baffled audiences up and down the UK, they became a cherished part of the UK underground. Their album Breakdance Euphoria Kids was released in 2002, and this new vinyl pressing celebrates the 20th anniversary of this fantastic record.

ONOM AGEMO AND AHMED AG KAEDY Tartit

Second collaboration between the Berlin based groove-outfit Onom Agemo and Malian guitarist, singer and songwriter Ahmed Ag Kaedy recorded in Berlin and Bamako between 2018 and 2020. "Tartit" roughly translates to unity, as it unifies not only Funk Psychedelica with Desert Blues, but also unites musicians whose backgrounds are as different as can be, but whose musical tastes are surprisingly in tune. This is excellent stuff.
