ELAINE HOWLEY The Distance Between Heart And Mouth (Touch Sensitive)

The product of an audio diary kept on a 4 track cassette machine throughout 2019 and 2020, the album recreates the intimacy of a radio show filled with Howley's favourite sounds, palettes, and textures; effortlessly joining the dots between pop and experimentation, summoning the kaleidoscopic world of Trish Keenan & Broadcast, the bruised lo-fi soul of Tirzah and the dubbed-out blues of Leslie Winer.

HIGH VIS No Sense No Feeling (Venn Records)

London's High-Vis play aggressive, frosty post-punk that's as hard as any hardcore record. Like Black Flag, Sleaford Mods and of course Public Image Ltd before them, High-Vis' anger is artful, gripping, and energising. It'll trim the fat from your soul.

- Ltd Red LP £19.99

HUDSON MOHAWKE Cry Sugar (Warp)

- CD £11.99

- Indies Blue 2LP £26.99

JANE WEAVER The Amber Light (Finders Keepers Records)

Originally issued as a limited CD only bonus disc for 'The Silver Globe' album global re-release and a subsequent vinyl pressing, 'The Amber Light' surprised fans expecting B-sides and outtakes with what, for many, stood up as its own isolated project, including some of Jane's best material to date.

- 2022 Reissue LP £24.99

JANE WEAVER The Silver Globe (Finders Keepers Records)

When a handful of broadsheet music columns and reputable blog pages began to mention the vaguely familiar name Jane Weaver in the 'Here's One We Missed'-themed features during 2014's End Of Year round-ups, it became quickly apparent that 'The Silver Globe', had already independently garnered a 'must have' status amongst virtually any self respecting music buyers.

- 2022 Reissue LP £24.99
