UNKNOWN MORTAL ORCHESTRA V (Jagjaguwar)

Across fourteen sunbleached songs - written solo or with his brother Kody - Ruban draws from the rich traditions of West Coast AOR, yacht rock, weirdo pop and Hawaiian Hapa-haole music. Over a laidback blend of singalong anthems and cinematic instrumentals, he evokes blue skies, afternoons spent lounging by hotel swimming pools and the alluring darkness that lurks below perfect, pristine surfaces.

CD £10.99 / Gold 2LP £32.99

WALTER BRANCO Meu Balanco (Mr. Bongo)

Brazilian big band, orchestrated jazz-funk at its finest, originally released on CBS Records Brazil in 1975. Echoing the library and film productions created in Europe and the USA at the time, it also displays the hallmarks of Waltel's heritage with distinct threads of Brazilian flavour running throughout

LP £22.99 / CD out now £10.99

WIZZ JONES Personal Best

CD £10.99

VARIOUS ARTISTS Birthright: A Black Roots Music Compendium

While artists such as blues guitarist John Lee Hooker and gospel greats The Staple Singers are genre standard bearers, musicians such as jazz clarinetist George Lewis and “one man band” Jesse Fuller are perhaps remembered only by aficionados. The artists represented on the set range from pioneers such as zydeco accordionists Clifton Chenier and Boozoo Chavis, right up to contemporary artists such as Mississippi hill country guitarist Cedric Burnside and the Haitian-American singer-songwriter Leyla McCalla.
