THE TELESCOPES Of Tomorrow (Tapete)

15th album created entirely by Lawrie and is a departure from what the press often refer to as a 'wall of throb' synonymous with most of The Telescopes output. There is a complete change in dynamics with solid grooves to the fore, leaving crystallised trails across a fluttering undercurrent of uplifting rhythm and hooks.

THEE OH SEES Live At LEVITATION

Ltd. Neon Pink & Green LP £20.99

TINARIWEN Amatssou

Tuareg nomads and cowboy drifters. Camel trains and mustang horses. The timeless horizon of the endless Sahara and the wild frontier of the Old West - several thousand miles of ocean may divide the desert blues of Tinariwen and the authentic country music of rural America but the links are as palpable as they are romantic.

CD £10.99 // Std. LP + Booklet + MP3 £25.99 // Ltd. White LP + Booklet + MP3 £26.99

THE UNDERTONES The Undertones

VIOLIN SECT Vile Insect

The Violin Sect 7" from 1981 is one of the rarest and largely unknown documents of 1980's "UK DIY" post-punk. Touching on the same sounds as contemporaries such as Scritti Politti, the Raincoats and the Pop Group, the Wales-based quartet existed for only a short time, managing to play just a few shows and record and self-release one two-song 7" on their own label Cheek to Cheek (A Porky Prime Cut!).

Ltd. 12" + Inserts
