DAVID CROSBY AND SHAWN COLVIN A Place For Innocence - Sausalito '93

"Don't waste the time, time is the final currency, man, not money, not power - it's time" - David Crosby. Equisite acoustic session from the Record Plant, Sausalito, California, May 28, 1993. Sourced and remastered from the original KFOG. "With my songs, the question is always, 'Can you pull it off live, alone on just an acoustic guitar?' That's the litmus test. If I can, then it's a song I ought to record. If I can't, it's probably not good enough." Shawn Colvin.

Band - David Crosby, vocals, guitar, Shawn Colvin, vocals, guitar, Jeff Pevar, guitar.

EMPIRE STATE BASTARD (Biffy Clyro / Slayer / Oceansize) Rivers Of Heresy (Roadrunner Records)

A decade ago, Simon Neil and Mike Vennart would be found sitting on the back of the Biffy Clyro tour bus sharing the most extreme, confrontational or just downright twisted music they could find. Simon had always had the name Empire State Bastard lurking in the back of his mind if he ever formed a sickeningly heavy band, leaving Mike with the challenge of writing music that could live up to that moniker. Now the results are ready to be unleashed.

SLOWDIVE everything is alive (Dead Oceans)

Universal touch points within it. • While there are parts of this record that could sit neatly next to the atmospheric quality of 1995's 'Pygmalion'; 'everything is alive' also manages to break down the boundaries of what's come before it. Spanning psychedelic soundscapes, pulsating 80's electronic elements and John Cale inspired journeys, the album lands immediately as something made for 2023 and beyond. For a genre that is often thought of as divisive, and often
