THE FUTURE SOUND OF LONDON Environment 7.003

the final instalment in the Environments Trilogy. "7.003" goes deeper and darker than the previous two albums, the flavour here harping back with memories of the groups 90s sounding pre "Dead Cities" album. On this release we have swamp laden electronics dripping from cavernous breakbeats weaving in and out of otherworldly chords and strings firmly back in the driving sea

CD £12.99

MAX CHAMPION (JOE JACKSON) Mr. Joe Jackson Presents Max Champion In What a Racket!

Like its American cousin Vaudeville, Music Hall featured magicians, acrobats, and ventriloquists – elements that we still see today in musical theater and cabaret shows. One of the most fascinating of the Music Hall performers was Max Champion. We know little about him, except that he was born in London in 1882.

ME LOST ME RPG (Upset The Rhythm)
